National Guard of the District of Columbia may camp for ten days next month in Virginia. Permission to use the State Rifle Range at Virginia Beach for the encampment has been given to the District militia authorities, and Adjutant-General Parmenter, of Washington, will inspect the grounds to-day under the guidance of Major C. L. Wright, of Norfolk. Two regiments of infantry comprise the strength of the Washington troop, and this number of men can probably be handled at Virginia Beach.

COMMAND IN ARMY RESIGNED BY VILLA

(Continued from First Page.) regarding his relation with Carranza, the matter did not receive serious consideration until the appointment by Carranza of General Panfito Natera as commander of a newly created mili-tary zone. Natera's appointment placed him in charge of a strip of country which Villa previously had planned to invade, including the yet uncaptured city of Zacatecas. Natera attacked Zatera while Villa remained at Tor-reon, viewing the experiment from the rear.

According to reports from Mexico City, confirmed by private advices from the revolutionalists' front below this point, Natera was defeated decisively in frequent attempts to take the city. Then it was that Carranza requested villa to rush to Natera's assistance. This was several days ago, and in the meantime reports continued to arrive of Natera's defeats. Villa remained at Torreon.

The matter of who should regulate the matter of who should regulate the public service in Northern Mexico admittedly has been a hone of contention between Carranza, the leader, and Villa and subordinate. Under the old Federal regime, the railroads and telegraph were subject to central control from the national capital

Constitutionalists here expect Gencial Carranza to call together the chief army officers of the various brigades of Villa's army to choose his successor, in case the latter has resigned, One report here said this already had been done.

Villa's reported resignation is said to be based on General Natera's attempt to take Zacatecas without orders.
